FROM THE 2nd GRADERS IN MRS. CARVER'S & MRS. ABRAHAMSON'S CLASS…READ ON…

How they will make the world a better place by: cooking for others; cleaning up the earth; picking up trash; making cards for people; helping my dad in the garden; smiling; watering flowers; praying; listening to God. We show kindness by… sharing; caring; helping; giving hugs; comforting people; donating money & food to the poor; being nice to others. We are blessed by…having Jesus in our hearts; having loving parents; to be alive; having delicious food; to have our church; being in a safe place to live; to have a great religion teacher!

Graduation Mass Flowers donated by Margaret & James McNally in memory of their daughter, Wendy Marks, a 1978 MCS Graduate.

GRADUATION MASS RECEPTION:
We need people to help with this reception. This is truly a parish event celebrating our graduates. You won't be on your own, "you won't be inventing the wheel"…all the decisions and details have already been recorded so all you have to do is "make it happen". This is a parish community effort – it can also be a family event and Confirmation students, this would be hours for you!

DATE OF GRADUATION/RECEPTION:
Sunday, 6/30. Reception follows the 10:45 Mass in the Hall. Contact Renee O'Connor 315 673 4107 or email renee@cnymail.com.

LAST Sandwich Sunday
for the season!
Our last Sandwich Sunday for the school year will be held next Sunday, June 9th after the 8:30 Mass. We thank you for all your hard work this year in our service to the homeless.
We'd like to cap off the season with our friends at the 8:30 Mass. God Bless and hope to see you soon.

"Start being brave about everything. Drive out darkness and spread light. Don't look at your weaknesses; realize instead that in Christ you can do everything."

7th Sunday of Easter

Our post-Easter stories conclude today with powerful readings about hope, inclusivity and unity. Despite the travails of the early church and what must have been a mixture of awe, commitment, confusion and fear among Jesus' followers, the message is forward-looking and hopeful. As we review the past centuries and survey the world today, let us embrace fully the vision that so obviously motivated them.

Penitential Act

Lord Jesus, you prayed that all might be one and share in the glory you were given: Lord, have mercy.
Christ Jesus, you prayed that the world would know that you were loved and sent: Christ, have mercy.
Lord Jesus, you have given us the responsibility to make this known to others: Lord, have mercy.

Scripture Readings: 7th Sunday Easter

Act 7:55-60 Stephen is the first martyr for Jesus
Ps 97 The Lord is king, the most high over all the earth
Rev 22:12-14, 16-17, 20 Jesus' all-encompassing statement of hope for the future
Jn 17:20-26 The Last Supper prayer for unity

Baby Shower 2019
