St. Francis Xavier Parish Memorial Mass

It is a tradition at St. Francis Xavier to invite families and friends who have lost a loved one during the past fourteen months (from September 2021 to date) to a special liturgy that will honor their loved ones.

Wednesday, November 2nd at 7:00 PM

Join us in remembering and honoring those we love. Please call the parish office at 673-2531 and provide us with your loved one's name and date of death.

All Saints and All Souls

Dear Parish Family,

On November 1 the Church celebrates the Solemnity of All Saints as a Holy Day of Obligation. On this day we celebrate all the Saints, both those who are officially proclaimed by the Church and those who are not, yet still enjoy the experience of heaven. According to The Catechism of the Catholic Church (1023-1024): Those who die in God's grace and friendship and are perfectly purified live forever with Christ. They are like God for they "see Him as He is" face to face. This perfect life with the Most Holy Trinity - this communion of life and love with the Trinity, with the Virgin Mary, the angels and all the blessed - is called 'heaven.' Heaven is the ultimate end and fulfillment of the deepest human longings, the state of supreme, definitive happiness.

On November 2 the Church celebrates All Souls Day, a day to commemorate all who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, and are indeed assured of eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven. The Church gives the name Purgatory to this final purification of the elect, which is entirely different from the punishment of the damned. (Catechism of the Catholic Church 1030 - 1031) From the beginning the Church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic Sacrifice, so that purified, they may enter the beatific vision of God. The Church also commends almsgiving, indulgences and works of penance undertaken on behalf of the dead. (Catechism of the Catholic Church 1032).
God Bless, Fr. Dan

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

Jesus is saying to you what he said to Zacchaeus, "I must stay at your house today." It doesn't matter if in today's gospel Jesus "intended to pass through Jericho to another town." In families we sometimes stop at the wrong places. It is wisdom to "pass through" annoying family situations so we can enjoy the goodness of each other.

Question of the Week - Welcoming the Sinner

For Adults: During the next week, what could you do to welcome someone who usually feels excluded?

For Children: Is there a child in your class or neighborhood who is left out of games and activities? What can you do?

We would like to welcome the newest members of our parish family: Calum Mosure, the son of Gregory and Christine who was baptized on October 22; and Emmanuel Reilly, the son of Joseph and Christine who was baptized on October 23. Welcome and God Bless.

St. Francis Xavier Respect Life Spiritual Adoption Update:

"Thank you for praying for me. I have been here for 24 weeks now and can open my eyes. Before they were sealed shut for protection. I hear sounds around me. I am about 2lbs, can sit up straight, roll over and do summersaults, although space is getting a bit tight. Did you know that I can also cry, hiccup and suck my thumb?"

This month we add those people who help support and aide the suddenly expectant mother in her time of need. May our love and prayers keep them safe. Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to protect the life of the preborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is still in danger of abortion.
