Scripture Readings

EZ 34:11-12, 15-17

MT 25:31-46

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar – Families feed the hungry, give drinks to thirsty toddlers and welcome strangers and even estranged relatives into our homes. We clothe children and visit family members who are sick and imprisoned. The routine actions of family life are religious and priestly for we make Christ present in what we do. Family life is Beatitude life.

Question of the Week – The Final Judgment

For Adults: Who are the least of your sisters and brothers for whom you do care? Who are those whom you ignore?

We would like to welcome the newest members of our faith family:

Bennett and Mara Heinl, the children of Abbie & Jared Heinl, baptized on November 14, 2020.

Novena of Grace in Honor of St. Francis Xavier

O Saint Francis Xavier, well beloved and full of charity, in union with thee, I reverently adore the Majesty of God; and since I rejoice with exceeding joy in the singular gifts of grace bestowed upon thee during thy life, and thy gifts of glory after death, I give Him hearty thanks therefore; I beseech thee with all my heart's devotion to be pleased to obtain for me, by thy effectual intercession, above all things, the grace of a holy life and a happy death. Moreover, I beg of thee to obtain for me...(here mention the spiritual or temporal favor to be prayed for). But if what I ask of thee so earnestly doth not tend to the glory of God and the greater good of my soul, do thou, I pray obtain for me what is more profitable to both these ends. Amen.

from www.ourcatholicprayers.com/novena-of-grace.html

You may say this novena for nine days beginning on Nov. 25 and ending on Dec. 3, the Feast day of St. Francis Xavier, or at any time.

Each week we will print one name of our Diocesan Seminarians so that we can remember them specifically, by name, in prayer throughout the week. This week we remember in prayer: Deacon James Buttner
