The Seven Sacraments (Matrimony)

Matrimony is one of the Sacraments of Mission/Commission as it continues God's creative loving activity in our world. Marriage is a unique Sacrament in the way it is celebrated in New York State, the civil and Sacramental aspects are put together in one celebration. Civilly, the couple gets a marriage license prior to the Church celebration which is signed after the ceremony by the best man and maid of honor and the officiant (Priest/Deacon). Sacramentally, Matrimony is unique in that the man and woman administer the Sacrament to each other with the officiant receiving the consent on behalf of the Church.

THE RITE OF MATRIMONY INVOLVES:

Questions before the Consent

Have you come here to enter into Marriage without coercion, freely and wholeheartedly? Are you prepared, as you follow the path of marriage, to love and honor each other as long as you both shall live? Are you prepared to accept children lovingly from God to bring them up according to the law of Christ and His Church? To each of these questions, both must respond in the affirmative.

The Consent (Marriage Vows)

The Bride and Groom take turns sharing their vows. I promise to be faithful to you, in good times and in bad, in sickness and in health,

I will love you and honor you all the days of my life.

Reception of Consent

The officiant then says:

May the Lord in his kindness strengthen the consent you have declared before the Church, and graciously bring to fulfillment his blessing within you.

What God joins, together, let no one put asunder. (These are taken from the Order of Celebrating Matrimony)

At this point the couple are Sacramentally married and will administer the grace of this Sacrament to one another and to the Church for the rest of their lives.

God Bless, Fr. Dan

Ps 146:7, 8-9, 9-10

Heb 9:24-28

Mk 12:38-44

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar – The widow in today's gospel gave only a little, but it counted for a lot. In our homes, there are many LITTLE MOMENTS, which can have great significance and glue the family together. Seize the moments.

Question of the Week – Giving From Our Need

Adults: What are you willing to give out of love for God that would be a hardship for you?

Children: What would you be willing to give up for someone else?

"America: Home of the free because of the brave."

This quote is from a speech given by Col. Douglas McArthur McBride, Jr. 13th.

ESC Commander, June 30, 2016. When I first saw this quote, I was taken and moved by the simplicity and honesty of it. As we look forward to celebrating Veterans Day this November 11, I think that it is important for all of us to remember that freedom is not free and it was bought and is protected for us by the service, sacrifice and lives of all of those who have served and are currently serving in our Armed Forces. Please remember to pray for these heroes of our freedom and when you see a Veteran remember to say: "Thank you for your service." May God bless them all and may God continue to bless America. God Bless you, Fr Dan
