Confession/Penance/Reconciliation

Dear Parish Family,

This weekend a number of our children will be celebrating First Penance; not only is this a blessing for our parish, but also a time for each of us to reflect on our own celebration of this great Sacrament of healing. Confession is one of those Sacraments that seem to have fallen out of favor with many; perhaps we don't believe that we are in need of forgiveness, or perhaps we think that my 'sin' is only between God and me. So why should I go to the priest for absolution? First, we are all sinners and in need of forgiveness, St. John writes: "Whoever says that they are not a sinner has made God out to be a liar." Sin is not just a breaking of a law or a commandment, it is a disruption of righteousness and relationships. When I sin, I choose to diminish (or in the case of mortal sin) cut off my ability to receive and experience God's grace. If God's grace was only given to me for me then I do not need to be reconciled with anyone other than God. However, God's grace is given not just for the individual, but through the individual for the community and the world. My sin, my refusal to love, affects my relationship with God, with my authentic self (the person God created me to be), the community of the Church and the world. I need to be reconciled, not just with God, but with myself, the community and the world. In the Sacrament, God forgives sin, restores relationships and empowers one to live more closely in line with Jesus' life. Also, in this sacrament we experience both pardon and peace. Take a moment and prayerfully ask yourself: "When was the last time I went to Confession?" If you can't remember or if it has been over a year then it is time to reacquaint yourself with the celebration of this great gift of healing, reconciliation, restoration and grace.

God Bless,
Fr Dan

Scripture Readings

Jer 17:5-8

Ps 1:1-2, 3, 4 and 6

1 Cor 15:12, 16-20

Lk 6:17, 20-26

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar – Don't look very far when you hear today's gospel speak of poverty, sorrow, or exclusion. These things happen in families. Children feel "insulted" when they are constantly criticized. Spouses "hunger" for affection. Grandparents feel "excluded" by divorce and custody decisions. Parents "weep" because they feel alienated from their children.

Question of the Week – Reaching Out to Others

For Adults: In what way are you serving the poor, as Jesus did?

For Children: When have you helped bring God's love to someone who was sad, or hungry, or whom others made fun of?

From your friends at All Saints Parish and the Ignatian Volunteer Corps of Syracuse:

We appreciate the winter weather items collected for our Refugee Children at All Saints Church. The generosity of your church was awesome! In all, 80 hats, 194 pairs of socks, 41 pairs of gloves, 60 scarves, a cape, blankets, a jacket, winter pants, a coat and ear warmers were donated. The families were overjoyed and filled with gratitude. Thank you so much!

Prayer for the Synod

We stand here before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;
Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.
Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity
so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You,
who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.
