The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
(Corpus Christi)

Dear parish family,

This Solemnity celebrates another central mystery of our Catholic Faith. We believe that on the authority of Christ, by the power of the Holy Spirit acting through the office of the priest; the bread and wine at Mass become actually, literally and completely the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, the second Person of the Most Blessed Trinity. The Eucharist (the word means thanksgiving) is not a symbol of Jesus, not a sign of Jesus, not simply a memorial or remembrance; it is the real actual presence of our Lord Jesus Christ. The Host is not a blessed, or holy object: it is really our Lord and Savior, the Divine (and human) second Person of the Trinity.

We read in the Gospel: Matthew 26: 26-30; Mark 14: 22-26; Luke 22: 14 - 20; and we find an account of the institution of the Eucharist and the tradition of the early Church in the celebration of the Eucharist in St. Paul's First letter to the Corinthians 11: 23-26. As we read in John's Gospel 6:51, 54, 56 (Jesus said) "I am the Living bread that came down from heaven; if anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever... he who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life and... abides in me and I in him"

The Catechism of the Catholic Church proclaims: We must therefore consider the Eucharist as: - thanksgiving and praise to the Father; - sacrificial memorial of Christ and his Body; - the presence of Christ by the power of His word and of His Spirit.

When we receive Communion under either species; The Consecrated Bread and/or the Consecrated Wine; we receive the fullness of the Real Presence of Christ without prejudice or distinction.

God Bless, Fr. Dan

Scripture Readings

Gn 14:18-20

Ps 110:1, 2, 3, 4

1 Cor 11:23-26

Lk 9:11b-17

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar – In today's gospel Jesus teaches we will find abundance by sharing the little we have. No matter how little time, money or food we have, it is enough to share.

Question of the Week - True Authority

For Adults: Following the example of Jesus, what is the best way to exercise your authority over others?

For Children: What qualities would a good leader have? Which of these are you trying to develop?

GRADUATION MASS will be Monday, June 20 at 7pm with a reception to follow in the Hall. We're all so proud of these fine young women and men, wishing them God's blessings.

The flowers in our sanctuary have been donated by Jim McNally in memory of his daughter Wendy Marks, a 1978 MCS graduate and Peggy McNally, his wife and a Marcellus 2nd grade teacher for 30 years. Thank you again, Jim.

Our Parish will gift each Graduate with a Bible which will include a book mark that reads:

"PRAYER TO KNOW GOD'S PLAN"

Father, I believe you have a special plan for my life that will make me happy and lead me to heaven. I believe in You, I love You, and I promise to follow You always. Help me to listen to your Son's voice now and when I am older, so I can discover my vocation: the way He wants me to serve others. Mary, Mother of God, and my mother, pray that I can know and follow God's plan for me. Amen.
