

Fr. Peter Adu Boahen Nkansah
Missionary Preacher, MCP 2022

Fr. Peter is a priest in good standing from the Catholic Diocese of Obuasi, Ghana, West Africa. He was ordained in July 2003. Following his good accounting and finance studies, he has almost always been the Financial Administrator of the Diocese until he left for Pastoral Missionary Work in the Diocese of Rochester NY in October 2011.

While in Rochester NY, he served at Owego, Canandaigua and finally at Henritta before returning home in August 2016 to be reassigned as Financial Administrator of the Diocese of Obuasi. He's also the Pastor of St. Patrick's Church, Brahabebome, a Consultor and a Curia member of the Diocese. Notwithstanding his numerous and challenging apostolate he enjoys his additional position as the Chaplain of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal in the Diocese.

He's a convincing speaker and a great man of God. Looking at his rich background, he's the best person to speak about the physical and financial needs of the Diocese of Obuasi.
