Visiting Our Homebound Members

Keeping in touch with our homebound members remains a priority for us at Saint Francis. When someone can no longer come and join us for prayer, whether for a short period or long term, we have Ministers of the Eucharist that are happy to make a friendly visit, sharing the Eucharist and offer prayer. If you are aware of anyone who is homebound (in their private home or a long-term care facility) and would like to receive the Eucharist, please contact the parish office so that we can arrange for a visit and bring the Eucharist to the homebound. Or, if you are aware of anyone who is homebound that would like a visit from Fr. Dan, please call the church office with their name and number. Thank you.

"I used to believe that prayer changes things, but now I know that prayer changes us and we change things."

-St. Teresa of Kolkata.

Angels

Dear Parish Family,

A few years ago Angels were all the rage: there were angel books, calendars, and even a TV show 'Highway to Heaven', that had an angel as its main character. But, what do we really teach and believe about angels? First, 'angel' does not indicate a nature, as does human; but, rather a function: the word angel is from the Greek and means 'messenger'. Angels are a unique order of creation. They will never become humans; likewise, humans will never become angels. Even though we say things like: "He/she is now an angel" or "God needed another angel" after a loved one dies; these are not accurate. Humans do not change their nature when they die and, if God needed more angels (although God 'needs' nothing) He simply would create more. The Catechism teaches: "Angel is the name of their office, not of their nature. If you seek the name of their nature, it is 'spirit'; if you seek the name of their office, it is 'angel': from what they are 'spirit' from what they do 'angel'. With their whole being they are servants and messengers of God. They are the mighty ones who do His word, hearkening to the voice of His word. As purely spiritual creatures angels have intelligences and will: they are personal and immortal creatures, surpassing in perfection all visible creatures, as the splendor of their glory bears witness, (CCC 329-330). From its beginning until death, human life is surrounded by their watchful care and intercession. Beside each believer stands an angel as protector and shepherd leading him through life (Guardian Angel) (CCC 336.) There are different 'orders' of angels; depending on specific mission. Some angels are mentioned by name in Scripture: Michael, Gabriel and Raphael for example. Although they are purely spiritual beings, Angels can appear to humans, such as Gabriel in the Annunciation, or in dreams, such as when an angel appeared to Joseph in a dream. Your Guardian Angel is a great gift and help to each of us on our way to the Kingdom of our God. God Bless,

Fr. Dan

Guardian Angel Prayer

Angel of God, my guardian dear;
To whom God's love commits me here,
Ever this day (or night) be at my side,
To light and guard, to rule and guide.

Amen

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

The phrase in today's gospel, "I don't know where you come from," is often used by parents about children and children about parents. Change is so rapid one generation has little in common with another. We depend on love, trust, and mutual respect to bridge this gap.

Question of the Week - The Narrow Door

For Adults: What daily choices are you making that will allow you to be recognized at the doorway of the reign of God?

For Children: What good habits are you practicing in order to be a good Christian?
